THE DREAM

No matter the time of year,
your days are always filled with sunshine.

Dip your toes into the tide, join the early risers on the sand, share fish
and chips by the beach at sundown.
Salty air, sea pools, cool bars, bistros
and boutiques bring a revitalising energy that flows all around the Shire's shores.

Live for the fresh starts.

The sun is shining on outdoor tables. The espresso machines are hissing. The forecast is warm and welcoming.

An easy stroll and you're eating your favourite healthy breakfast by the sand, dropping by your local for a fresh bread fix or brunching away weekend mornings with your besties.
On the edge of the Royal National Park, Jack Gray café is a favourite for those fuelling up for coastal adventures.

Whether it's time for a basic wardrobe overhaul or a special piece, cool offerings abound.

Mingle with the crowds in the high-impact retail at Westfield Miranda. Hunt for unique interior inspo at Cronulla's quirky This Is Not A Shop, or source luxe local and international labels at Meet That Store. The Shire's bustle of boutiques and essential stores creates a richly layered and stimulating neighbourhood.

THIS IS NOT A SHOP

MEET THAT STORE

PAGO & CO.

Live for the labels. If you need a 'look at me' frock, unique homewares, designer threads or a new swimsuit, breezy boutiques and bustling shopping meccas are perfectly positioned.

Good times. Good people. Great food. The Shire's fine-dining beachside restaurants and bars keep that day-night summertime vibe going right through Sydney's short winter.

Surrounded by water on three sides, it's no surprise that open-air dining is a hot ticket in The Shire.

Few do it better than Next Door, a buzzing Modern Australian eatery and bar that's all about ambience. Perched above iconic North Cronulla Beach, its sun-drenched terrace is perfect for long lunches or afternoon cocktails, encircled by stunning ocean views.
